

DEMONSTRATIONS COMPLETE FIASCO

May Day Throughout Russia Was Observed Everywhere but Order Reigned.

VERY QUIET IN ST. PETERSBURG

Not a Drop of Blood Shed—Peculiarities Were Taken to Guard Against Any Outbreak.

St. Petersburg, May 15, 12:30 a. m.—The widely heralded May day demonstrations in St. Petersburg were a complete fiasco, and reports from Moscow and the provinces indicate that order reigned on Sunday generally throughout the entire extent of Russia. Minor disorders are reported at Rostov, Kishineff and one or two other places, but up to midnight no reports of serious tumults or loss of life have been received, and the attempt of the Social Democrats and Social Revolutionists to organize May day by great anti-government demonstrations appears to have been a thorough failure.

Dispatches from Kazan, Tiflis, Saratoff, Chonstadi, Rostov-on-Don, Kiev, Volgograd, Tomsk and other cities say the workmen observed the day as a holiday; that the shops were closed and that quiet was not disturbed.

In St. Petersburg the day was passed in almost perfect quiet, and, happily, without a drop of blood being shed. The revolutionaries found it impossible to execute the program of demonstrations and bomb throwing which they so widely advertised, the working men declining to sacrifice themselves to advance the propaganda of their self-commissioned leaders, and the advertised meetings were attended chiefly by spectators. Gov. Gen. Treppoff handled the situation firmly, but with a view to avoiding collisions, and made his dispositions skillfully. Squads of Cossacks patrolled the streets, reserve being held out of sight in courtyards, and the guard regiments were retained under arms in their barracks, but there was no occasion to call out either.

The Associated Press correspondent, who rode through all sections of the city and suburbs, found the streets perhaps less thronged than usual. More or less tension and agitation were apparent in the industrial quarters among workmen promading under the eyes of Cossacks with whips in their hands, but otherwise the city wore almost a normal appearance. The weather, which was cold and raw, perhaps acted as a deterrent of trouble, as Russians dislike physical discomfort.

At the Preobrazhensky cemetery where the principal meeting in honor of the "January martyrs," as the victims of the Sunday strike are popularly called, had been advertised, a scanty crowd, largely composed of curiosity seekers, assembled. Cossacks dispersed the crowd, the more aggressive of whom sang the "Marseillaise" as they were crossing the fields.

This defiance was met by a charge of Cossacks, who used police whips freely, inflicting many "nasty" injuries. There was a similar incident on Vassil Island, where a dozen students, mostly girls, raised the "Marseillaise" and gathered a crowd. Cossacks entered and dispersed the crowd with whips, seeming to take special pleasure in striking the girl students with their whips, but the latter apparently were not much perturbed.

The affair gave rise to rumors that a number of persons had been killed, but in the incident which happened under the eyes of the Associated Press correspondent, no one was hurt, and no one was killed. The day was seriously hurt.

The day wound up with a tumult in one of the people's parks, where while merry-makers were dancing to the strains of popular songs, agitators scattered provocations among the crowd and drove a single guard of police into a shallow artificial lake. Cossacks then galloped, wielding their whips, rescued the police and made numerous arrests.

It was noticeable that the Cossacks rode at a gallop, evidently to minimize the effects of bombs, should they be thrown.

Gov. Gen. Treppoff is exceedingly well pleased with the result of his precautions, and points out that the day was exceptionally maintained during the day without firing a shot or inflicting a single injury serious enough to warrant surgical or hospital attention.

He attributes the success of his measures largely to the wholesale arrests of incendiary leaders Saturday night and Sunday night. He also praises the working population for the sensible stand.

The prestige of the social democrats and revolutionists has suffered greatly by Sunday's failure, though they were trying last night to retrieve it by issuing a manifesto attributing their inability to carry out the program to the overwhelming force of military and police. A general strike today. The leaders were so confident of success in advance of events that they prepared a number of informal hospitals or bandaging stations in the neighborhood of the various advertised meeting places to render first aid to the victims of the expected rioting. Part of the onus of their failure was upon them. The Associated Press correspondent, who rode through all sections of the city and suburbs, found the streets perhaps less thronged than usual. More or less tension and agitation were apparent in the industrial quarters among workmen promading under the eyes of Cossacks with whips in their hands, but otherwise the city wore almost a normal appearance. The weather, which was cold and raw, perhaps acted as a deterrent of trouble, as Russians dislike physical discomfort.

Following the policy of trying to improve the condition of the Poles, Emperor Nicholas has sanctioned an important law permitting them to purchase land in the kingdom of Poland. They were deprived of this right after the insurrection in 1863, the land tenure of Poles being limited to land acquired by direct inheritance. The inability to buy land has been even one of the chief grievances of the Poles.

The police prevented a meeting yesterday of resident clergy who desired to pass resolutions of sympathy with Metropolitan Antonius, who has been transferred to the Caucasus on account of his agitation in favor of a revival of the patriarchate. When representatives of the clergy asked an officer if they might hold a meeting in a church he replied in the negative, saying that his orders were not to permit a meeting anywhere.

A small crowd attempted to demonstrate this afternoon at the graves of the "January martyrs," as they are popularly called, at the Preobrazhensky cemetery, in the outskirts of the city. Cossacks dispersed the demonstrators. Subsequently the crowd sang the "Marseillaise" while crossing the fields, the Cossacks then charged, using their whips freely and inflicting painful injuries.

NO TROUBLE IN LODZ. Warsaw, May 14.—(Midnight.)—Sunday passed quietly at Lodz and in Warsaw. Strong forces were quartered in the Jewish district throughout the day.

The Socialists are reported to be trying the utmost to avoid strikes, and he workmen are disinclined to engage in such a conflict.

JAPS KEPT TAB ON RUSSIAN FLEET

Have an Exact Account for All Its Important Acts Since France Was Moved to Preserve Neutrality.

THE PROMISES WERE VIOLATED.

Saigon Base for Transportation of Military Supplies for Admiral Rojestvensky.

Tokio, May 14, 7 p. m.—Detailed confirmatory information concerning Vice Admiral Rojestvensky's use of Indo-China waters has reached the Japanese government from a variety of sources, both official and private. A high Japanese official today sketched to the Associated Press the important acts of the Russian fleet since France was first moved to preserve neutrality. He said: "The governor general of Indo-China officially reported that the Russian fleet had entirely departed from Kamranh bay on April 23, but on April 23 there still remained in the bay one torpedo boat destroyer and 15 transports of the Russian fleet. On April 24 the entire Russian fleet reentered Kamranh bay and rode at anchor until April 26, when a majority of the warships sailed, leaving behind four converted cruisers and one torpedo boat destroyer. These latter vessels took supplies of coal and provisions."

"April 26, toward evening, these vessels stopped and examined the German steamer, the Norwegian steamer, which passed outside of the bay. On April 27 more than 30 Russian vessels anchored at Honkoku, and at 6 o'clock in the afternoon they stopped and examined the British steamer Stettin, which was passing."

"According to the French official report, Admiral Rojestvensky promised Admiral de Jovianville that he would leave Honkoku on May 2. It is evident, however, that the Russians were anchored at Honkoku on May 8."

"The latest diagrams from Indo-China indicate the presence at Honkoku on May 12 of seven Russian battleships, seven cruisers, two torpedo boat destroyers and four converted cruisers."

"Since the appearance of the Russian fleet in the far east Saigon has become a base for the transportation of military supplies for Vice Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet. The number of vessels furnishing supplies to the Russians is great, that those which were anchored at Saigon May 5 were countable by tens."

Jap Troops Landed at Gensan. New York, May 15.—A delayed dispatch from the Herald correspondent at Seoul, Korea, by way of Chefoo, says it was rumored that early last week in the Korean capital that the Japanese recently landed 20,000 troops at Gensan.

Large quantities of military stock have landed recently at Pukcheng, to the north of Hanjing. The Indian point, the correspondent asserts, to an advance being made shortly on Vladivostok.

General censorship, which of late has been more lax is again being rigidly enforced.

Aeronaut Has Narrow Escape. Los Angeles, May 15.—Wm. M. Morton, an aeronaut, was severely injured and had a narrow escape from death at Chutes park by being dashed against a telegraph pole as his balloon arose from the ground.

Subsequently the crowd sang the "Marseillaise" while crossing the fields, the Cossacks then charged, using their whips freely and inflicting painful injuries.

The balloon rose rapidly, carrying the unconscious man dangling from the bar. The large crowd of spectators at the park, who witnessed the ascension, were horrified and expected every moment to see the man drop to the ground. But the balloon gradually lost its lifting power from gas evaporation and soon settled to the ground some distance from the park. Morton struck in the branches of a tree and tumbled to the ground in the rear yard of a residence. He was not injured in the descent. He was still unconscious from his first injury, however, and was immediately taken to the receiving hospital, where he revived. His injuries were found to consist of only a lengthy scalp wound and some minor bruises.

British Steamer Confiscated. Nagasaki, May 15, 4 p. m.—The naval prize court at Sasebo has confiscated the British steamer Sylvania.

The Sylvania, a vessel of 4,187 tons, was captured on Feb. 23 last, bound for Vladivostok with Cardiff coal on board. The place of her capture was not reported at the time.

SOLDIERS BLEW HOUSE UP. And Found Man They Wanted Had Escaped.

Paris, May 14.—The siege of the house in the village of Useau, department of Deux-Sevres, which an outlaw heavily armed held in defiance of the authorities, was brought to a conclusion this morning, when a lieutenant of engineers placed a charge of dynamite against the wall. The soldiers forming a cordon withdrew to a safe distance, the houses were sounded and the miller was exploded, destroying half the building. Then the gendarmes rushed in, on to find that the outlaw had escaped. In the meantime a commotion among the enormous crowd assembled about the house had been occasioned by the outlaw's appearance among them. The people seized and tried to lynch him, and the gendarmes with difficulty rescued him and conveyed him to the hospital in a condition. The prisoner was formerly a gamekeeper, and is charged with shooting and wounding his late employer. During the siege he wounded four gendarmes.

Honors for James Stillman. Washington, May 14.—The French government has charged Ambassador Jusserand with the duty of informing James Stillman, president of the City National bank of New York City, that the superior council of instruction in France has voted unanimously to engrave Mr. Stillman's name on the walls of the Ecole des Beaux Arts.

Howard Malcolm Tichner Dead. San Francisco, May 14.—Howard Malcolm Tichner, the author, lecturer and critic, is dead at his home in this city after a brief illness. He was a native of Boston, from which city he came here a few months ago.

Double Murder and Suicide. Memphis, May 14.—Thomas McCall, a night watchman for a railroad, shot and killed Edith Ferguson and Hal Williamson tonight and then shot and killed himself. McCall is said to have been jealous of Williamson's attentions to the woman.

THOMAS A. RISON, the inventor, in mapping out the problems of the future, gives credit to the necessity of fighting the bacteria which give us our diseases.

are the most dangerous enemies of man. The mosquito with its bite injects into our veins malaria, yellow fever, and other fatal troubles. The fly, with spungy feet, collects the invisible germs of diseases, spreads them over our food and poisons us with typhoid, cholera and other plagues of the human race.

Dr. Pierce, the eminent physician of Buffalo, N. Y., says, "If each person will consider his system as an army of men which he controls as a general, and will see to its proper provisioning and that it has plenty of ammunition in the shape of good red blood, he will be able to overcome the enemy in these germs of disease." Every healthy man has five million red blood corpuscles to every square millimeter of blood. The best tonic for increasing the red blood corpuscles and building up healthy tissue is no doubt Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

The medicine has been on the market for over a half of a century and numbers its cures by the thousand. Many popular patent medicines or tonics are made up of alcohol and drugs which shrink the corpuscles of the blood and make them weaker for resistance. What is needed is an alterative extract, like Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which acts on the roots and herbs, without the use of alcohol, that will assist the activity of the liver and cause it to throw off the poisons in the blood. The system is in a fortified condition so strong that it can repel the germs of disease which we find everywhere. The system is in a fortified condition so strong that it can repel the germs of disease which we find everywhere.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

Neglected constipation means headache, heart burn, sour stomach, flat taste in the mouth, biliousness, pimples, and palpitation of the heart. Constipation promptly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Use for mild cases, otherwise twice.

Much more welcome were 150 men who came from Hobart with tools and building material, and gave their services free to help in the wrecked houses into habitable condition. After a meeting of the board of directors of the fair President W. H. Goodie refused the request of the commission on the grounds of expediency. He stated that the corporation was not prepared to accept the ultimatum for the refusal of the construction of States Atty. A. M. Crawford upon section 6 of the law, which is in effect that the state commission is relieved of all responsibility of management, maintenance or jurisdiction over the affairs of the exposition. The commission is required to file and reply, and will obtain for themselves a legal construction of section 6.

VEILED MURDERESS DEAD. For Over Fifty Years She Concealed Her Identity.

Newburg, N. Y., May 14.—Mrs. Henrietta Robinson, 89 years old, who was known as the veiled murderess, died at 30 Main st. today.

She was convicted of the murder of Timothy Laganan and Catherine Lague in Troy, in 1853. During the trial she wore a heavy veil and said that she would rather have any verdict pronounced than to remove it. At the close of the trial she drew the veil for an instant, and smiling to the jury, again drew it. She was sentenced to be hanged on June 19, 1853. Her sentence was afterward commuted. She was sent to the state hospital for the insane in 1873 and later transferred to the asylum.

She refused, saying that she had kept the secret for 50 years and might as well not it die with her. TRAIN WRECKERS DITCH A SANTA FE TRAIN

Emporia, Kan., May 14.—Santa Fe passenger train No. 17 was ditched by train wreckers a mile east of town at 2:30 this morning. Six passengers were injured and two will probably die.

THE INJURED.

James Kuger, 73 years old, of the Soldiers Home at Leavenworth, fatally injured, right leg fractured in two places, head and hands cut and back injured.

J. O. Rice, Santa Fe car repairer, on way from Topeka hospital to Shawnee, Okla., badly bruised; left ear partly torn off.

N. D. Hendricks, Roswell, N. M., cattleman, back and hip sprained, long cut across forehead and scalp wound. Condition serious.

L. Cooper, Emporia, Mo., farmer; hands cut, elbow fractured.

E. A. Taylor, Kansas City, Mo., conductor; deep cut on scalp; four teeth knocked out, confusion on right leg, both hands cut.

P. A. Grover, Freeman, Topeka; thrown from cab and back and shoulders injured.

There is the fourth attempt in the last four months to wreck passenger trains in the same place. Previous attempts were made by piling ties on the track, and without serious results. The wreck today was caused by removing the spikes and fish-plates of two rails on the inside of a curve. The engine, No. 17, passed over the loose rails safely, but the mail car left the track and was dragged a hundred yards along embankment before the train was stopped. The next day the express and baggage car and smoker and two coaches, went into the ditch across the right-of-way fence and lodged in a zig-zag. The end of the baggage car went up in the air high enough to ground the telegraph wires. Two Pullman sleepers remained on the track.

The passengers were taken to Shawnee, Okla., and became greatly excited, but soon formed a wrecking crew and went to the relief of the men in the overturned baggage car. A window was broken and of seven men in the car, six were found injured. Stretchers were made from car doors and the wounded were carried to a nearby field, where a hospital was improvised. An hour after the wreck a freight train arrived from Emporia and the injured were taken to Emporia. A hundred workmen were put to work on the track and it was cleared for use again this afternoon.

There is no club of the wreckers. Three men were seen last night near the Howard branch section house. This morning a track wrench and claw bar were missing and it was found in a pool of water near the wreck today.
